The Dy Comr Mr. K. P. Puttanna chetty forwards a translation of his order No 273 of 12.11.1899 to show that he "made no promise of the kind as is alleged — to grant a remission of Rs 200/- in favour of the licensee of Sarjapur Toddy Shop for 1898-99. He states that "the gist of the order was that if, on full enquiry, sufficient grounds existed for remission" he intended (would) "to recommend a remission of half the amount which was then outstanding" and that it "would have been (subject ~~to~~ Subjected) to the approval of the Excise Commissioner and Govt, and that "final orders" were not passed by him

The order translated is flagged A, the original A.

With reference to the portion of the order wherein the Amildar is required "to submit a detail report with his (Yr) opinion about remitting a sum of Rs 200/- out of the amount due" the Excise Comm^r remarks that it "could not be interpreted as an unequivocal or absolute promise".

To

P. N. Purnaiya, Esquire, B. A.,
Excise Commissioner in Mysore.

Sir,

Adverting to Government Proceedings No 341-50 Ex dated 16th February 1903, in which it is remarked that I should not have anticipated the sanction of Government and made the promise to grant certain remission to the licensee of the Sarjápur Toddy Shop for the year 1898-99, I have the honour to return the file of papers kindly sent by you with your docket No 5-865/109, dated 24th March 1903, and in so doing to request the favour of your kindly perusing a true translation of my order No 273, dated 12th November 1899, to the Amildár of the Anekal Táluk, wherein I am said to have made the promise to grant the remission. A careful perusal of my order will will show that I made no such promise to the petitioner Bestar Nánayya. The petition was presented to me at Aniekal, and the Amildár having made certain personal representations in support of the petitioner's claim, I passed the order in question. The gist of the order was that if on full enquiry sufficient grounds existed for remission, I would recommend a remission of half the amount which was then outstanding. Such a recommendation would of course be subject to the approval of the Excise Commissioner and Government. The matter did not come up before me again and final orders were not passed by me.

2. I would not have troubled you with this explanation, but as a pointed reference is made to me in the above Government Proceedings, I have thought it necessary to explain matters fully.

3. I beg you will kindly forward this explanation to Government with your own remarks, with a view to correct the misapprehension. —

I have, &c.,

(Sd) K. C. Puttanna Chetty,

Deputy Commissioner,

Shimoga District.

Petition of Bestar Rámayya, dated 12th November 1899, surety to the Sarjápur Toddy Contractor Timmaiya, stating that he paid Rs. 200/- out of 600/- due by the licensee and praying for the remission of the remaining amount, viz; Rs. 400/-, and for the release of his moveable properties under attachment on the ground that he was only a nominal surety and that the licensee suffered loss owing to the prevalence of plague, &c.

Translation of the Deputy Commissioner's order No. 273, dated 12th November 1899, to the Amildár of the Anekal Táluk, on the above petition.

"You have personally informed me that the deceased defaulter was a man absolutely without any means (ಫಕೀರ ಇದ್ದಾನೆ), and that he and the surety (petitioner) had suffered a loss. If you can assure yourself that the petitioner will pay the monthly instalment of Rs. 50/- regularly in future, you are requested to get the entire
